Licensed to Wed.

Clerk Hook yesterday issued marriage licenses to the following named parties: John N. Dean, aged 26, a native of Lewis county, W. Va., and Tillie Jones, aged 23, a native of Belmont county, both now residents of Wheeling. Frans Oscar Erikson, aged 30, and Axelina Simonson, aged 27, both residents of Pittsburgh.

Has a Wife in Wheeling.

Yesterday's Pittsburgh Post has the following: Mrs. Susella Fair, by her next friend, S. L. Smith, sued for a divorce from Wm. A. Fair. They were married May 18, 1893, and separated August 8. She alleges that after she married him she learned that he had another wife, whom he married long ago, still living. The other wife lives in Wheeling, W. Va.

A Birthday Party.

Last evening, at her home, 128 Elm street, Miss Mamie Williams celebrated her eighteenth birthday by a pleasant and enjoyable party. About twenty couples were present, and the evening was passed in dancing, card playing and singing. The refreshments were served by Durs. Mrs. Anna Shattuck, of New York, a sister of Miss Williams, was present and her guitar solos were a feature.

Powell did not Come.

There was no performance at the Opera House last night. Powell, the magician, after the loud heralding he had received failed to arrive. His advance man said he had received a telegram from him saying that he had been taken ill at Panxatwny, Pa., and instructing him to cancel two weeks' dates. The general impression is, however, that Powell was trying a new variation of the "vanishing lady" trick—the not-appearing man.

Transfers Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows: September 23, by William C. Keim and wife to Johanna E. Keim, for $2,000, their interest in 40 feet front of lot 115 on the west side of Market street, in the second ward; also by George S. Keim to Johanna E. Keim, for $2,000, his interest in the same lot. September 16, by Eugene Hoge to J. Wilson White, for $1,675, lots 17 and 18 in Hamden place, at the east end of Thirteenth street.

Four Ones and a Blank.

In the police court yesterday morning John B. Connelly, a deaf-mute, was up as a plain drunk. He was fined $1 and costs, but the fine was suspended on his promising to leave town. Leonard Medler, charged with assault on Mrs. Ayers, was fined $1 and costs, and Mrs. Ayers got the same penalty. Charles Spies was also assessed the same sum for drunkenness. William Burns, the young man who was driving the cart which knocked down Mrs. Cushing, was dismissed, the evidence showing it was a pure accident.

OPERA HOUSE this evening—Powell, the Magician.

JUDGE J. R. PAULI went down to Moundsville yesterday and opened the October term of the circuit court. There are several cases of interest for the grand jury to consider.

TWO SHADE trees in front of the Exchange bank have in the past two or three warm days put forth new leaves. The old leaves were quite deadened by the several frosts recently.

YESTERDAY while Patrol Driver Carl Fulton was whittling, his knife slipped and he cut the ends of his fingers badly. He had to go to a physician and have his wounds sewed up.

ALICE LOVERIDGE was arrested, says the Bellair Tribune, on a warrant sworn out by an Italian and placed in jail. She is charged with stealing a ring, but the evidence was very flimsy and she was dismissed.

THIS morning, just after daylight, a large pheasant flew against the plate glass window in the Tallman property in the Third ward and broke it. Mr. Borham, who occupies the house, captured the bird. —Bellair Independent.

Pretty girls, big and little, throng the People's Museum theatre, trying to secure the fine French doll to be presented by little Algie Baker. The show this week is pronounced the best yet presented at the house. Manager Lawler certainly has a winner.

An afternoon paper yesterday printed an account of the Amalgamated Association convention here Saturday, less complete than the Intelligencer's account Monday morning, and coolly announced that the meeting had "escaped the notice of the newspapers heretofore." The News boys should read the Intelligencer.

FOR HORSE-STEALING.

A Wheeling Man in Serious Trouble in Pennsylvania.

The following dispatch from Brad-dock, Pa., was received last night, but the name given is probably an assumed one:

John Richardson, of Wheeling, W. Va., is locked up here charged with horsestealing. He left Wheeling three weeks ago, went to Jeannette, Westmoreland county, and yesterday hired a horse from a liveryman there. He proceeded toward Irwin and on the road swapped horses with a farmer, getting a little money "to boot." He came on to Irwin and hired a cart, proceeding on toward Pittsburgh, but was overtaken by the Jeannette liveryman and Officer Bennett, of this place, between Rankin and Hawkins Station, at 11 o'clock last night. Richardson charges all his cussedness to drink. He will be taken back to Westmoreland county.

A CUTTING AFFRAY.

One Man Stabs Another in the Neck at Moundsville.

Monday night about 12 o'clock George Bryson and Joe Wiley, an oil operator, got into a scrape in the Henrietta house saloon, in Moundsville, about an old grudge. Wiley succeeded in getting Bryson up in a corner and it was claimed that Bryson cut him in the neck, but it was not proven that he did. At any rate, Wiley had a gash in his neck about two and a half or three inches long.

Officers Charlton and Kidder heard the racket and ran in and arrested Wiley and took him to a doctor, where they had his wound sewed up, it requiring five stitches. He was afterwards let go until yesterday morning, when both the men were summoned. Only Bryson appeared. When Wiley was asked to go up and appear before Bryson, he asked what he had done that he should appear against him. No doubt exists that both men were drunk at the time of the fracas. Bryson was discharged, but Wiley was fined $5 and costs, which he paid.

A Showman's Dog Stolen.

The "Just Landed" company, which showed at the Opera House in Moundsville on Monday evening, had a small black-and-tan dog stolen from their room in the Henrietta House while the play was going on. The manager locked it up in the room when he left to go to the Opera House, but on his return about 11 o'clock it was gone. Yesterday morning the city marshal got word of the stealing by a letter from the manager of the company, and he has been on the lookout for the animal, but so far he has not run across it. Twenty dollars is offered for its recovery. The show had to go on down the river and leave the dog behind.

UNIVERSAL PROVIDERS—THE HUB CLOTHIERS.

Universal Providers.

FOR ALL MANKIND.

In the light of our liberal and progressive methods the days of few sales and fancy profits are numbered in Wheeling. The magnitude of our values in

MEN'S AND BOYS' CLOTHING, FURNISHINGS AND HATS

Have wrong words of praise even from our competitors, while the plaudits of the people who are being directly benefited by our unparalleled bargains sound as sweetest music to our ears and spur us on to extra efforts.

SPLENDID VALUES FOR THE COMING WEEK IN MEN'S SUITS.

We carry Suits as low as Five Dollars, and they are the best on earth at that price, and Dress suits as high as Thirty-five Dollars, which no custom tailor living can improve upon at any price, (but—) and we desire particularly to emphasize this statement, the best values are to be found between the two extremes. Our $10, $12, $15 and $18 Suits are the wonder and admiration of all who see them. Single and Double-Breasted Sacks and Cutaways, made up in the most approved fashions from fabrics that are in vogue. We show a dozen styles at each price where any house in Wheeling shows three, and will cheerfully refund your money if you can duplicate either one of ours for less than 25 per cent more money anywhere.

IN MEN'S OVERCOATS!

From Five to Thirty Dollars, with all the intermediate grade thoroughly represented, from the Light-Weight Fall Overcoat to the Heavy Storm Ulster. Our counters creak and groan beneath the weight of elegance, variety and worth of our Men's Overcoats. At $10, $12 and $15 we show probably more styles than you'll find in any three houses in Wheeling, while in sterling values they occupy the picturesque position of being without peers in the state. Kerseys, Beavers, Meltons, Whipcords, Cheviots, Worsteds, Strap Seams, Plain and In-laid Velvet Collars, Silk and Half-Silk Lined, Lined with Fancy Casimeres and fine Italian Serge, designed, cut, trimmed and made by the best tailors in the land.
